

PROGRESSIVE EPISCOPALIANS OF PITTSBURGH

in cooperation with

Social Justice and Outreach Committee and Commission on Race and Reconciliation of the Episcopal Diocese of Pittsburgh

presents a FREE showing of

Our wide income disparity threatens the health of both our economy and our democracy. As both citizens and as committed Christians, we believe that the problem of income inequality urgently demands to be addressed.

In 1970, the top 1% of earners took home 9% of the nation's income. Today they take in approximately 23%. The top 1% holds more than 35% of the nation's overall wealth, while the bottom 50% controls a meager 2.5%.

A brief discussion will follow the movie.

7 PM FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 2014, at ST. ANDREW'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH
5801 HAMPTON STREET, PITTSBURGH, PA.

For more information, go to <http://goo.gl/POCZvq>