

Negley Ave Bike Lane Implementation Update

Thank you to the community for working toward a design for a bicycle facility for Negley Avenue over the last two years. The time has come! Crews will be out installing bike lanes between Center Avenue and Stanton Avenue with an anticipated completion date of November 1, 2017.

We are very excited for this street safety improvement and new neighborhood bicycle connection. If you have questions or comments please contact:

Kristin Saunders
Department of Mobility and Infrastructure
kristin.saunders@pittsburghpa.gov
412-393-0150

BIKE LANES
(example photo)

SHARED LANE MARKINGS
(example photo)

All roads lead to Negley!

Want to try out the new bike lane but unsure how, or short of a bike? Here are a few resources to get you started:

Want to learn to ride a bike?

Bike Pittsburgh offers a range of cycling classes through their City Cycling program. Classes include on-bike instruction for brand new and seasoned riders.

Upcoming classes:

9/16 CONFIDENT CITY CYCLING – EAST LIBERTY

9/19 FUNDAMENTALS @ THE WHEEL MILL

10/21 CONFIDENT CITY CYCLING – DOWNTOWN

More information:

bikepgh.org/our-work/education/citycycling/

Try it for free with the code NEGLEY

Contact: Julie Mallis, julie@bikepgh.org

Want to borrow a bike?

In 2015 the City of Pittsburgh installed our first public bike sharing program. Currently, Pittsburgh's bikeshare system is currently going through technical updates and are offering free 60 minute rides.

Nearest station:

Negley Avenue and Baum Boulevard

Try it for 60 minutes with a code found here:
change.healthyridepgh.org

Contact: Erin Potts, erin@healthyride.org

