With over 30 years of experience as a pianist, music director, and composer, Dwayne Fulton fully understands the power of the arts and its influence on the earth. Dwayne is the founder and Chief Executive of Kingdom People Productions and The SouLyfe Cafe. Dwayne has had the honor of accompanying Grover Washington, Jr., Roger Humphries, Sean Jones, and Nathan Davis. He has also shared the stage with Keith Sweat, Guy, Fred Hammond, Bobby Jones, Kirk Franklin, The Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra and Michael Buble'. Prior collaborators include Pittsburgh Festival Opera, The Kuntu Repertoire Theatre, Kelly Strayhorn Theater, DeMaskus Productions, and the August Wilson Center.

Chanell C.J. Harris is a singer-songwriter, performer, and executive music licensing manager. Since recently returning to her native city of Pittsburgh, Chanell has curated and created original music for "The Writer's Landscape", a permanent exhibition at the August Wilson African American Cultural Center. Chanell is a ASCAP FILM & TV Award winner for her original work on the BET hit show Real Husbands of Hollywood where she also served as Music Supervisor. Chanell performs regularly in Downtown Pittsburgh's Con Alma with the band Tempo Noir. Having spent 10 years in the Music to Picture industry, Chanell is now focusing her talents on creating a music catalog for underserved markets and emerging streaming and media platforms.
