Mayor Luke Ravenstahl

On September 1, 2006, Luke Ravenstahl became the 59th Mayor of the city of Pittsburgh, Pa. Luke was born and raised in a North Side neighborhood in the city of Pittsburgh. As the youngest member ever elected to Pittsburgh City Council, Mayor Ravenstahl was elected to serve Council District on November 4, 2003. Mayor Ravenstahl believes that community partnerships build stronger neighborhoods which help our children.

Mark Roosevelt

Mark Roosevelt was appointed as Superintendent of Pittsburgh Public Schools in August, 2005. Mr. Roosevelt has taught at Brandeis University, been the CEO of Massachusetts Biomedical Initiatives, and also holds a Juris Doctorate from Harvard Law

School and a Bachelor of Arts from Harvard College. In addition, he is a graduate of the Broad Urban Superintendent's Academy, an intensive executive management program designed to prepare educators and professionals from other fields to lead large city school systems. Superintendent Roosevelt promotes relationships in our community for the advancement of all students.

Cle "Bone" Sloan

Cle "Bone" Sloan hails from South Central Los Angeles and is now a non-active member of the L.A. 'Bloods' gang. He is author and star of the award winning HBO documentary, Bastards of the Party. Thanks to his outspoken views on the '91 L.A. riots, he has appeared on 'Larry King Live,' 'The Oprah Winfrey Show' and 'Nightline with Ted Koppel.'
