How does TRVS raise funds with RTC? For every coop rental referred by TRVS families, TRVS receives $50

Why "Rent The Chicken"? Have you considered raising backyard chickens but don't know how to start? Do you desire to be closer to your food sources but don't think you can do it with a small back yard? Are you interested in farm fresh eggs but are not sure about a long-term commitment of having your own chickens? Rent The Chicken is the answer to all of those questions!

How Rent The Chicken work? Rent The Chicken, located in Armstrong County, Pennsylvania and serves Armstrong, Allegheny, Butler, Indiana, surrounding counties and beyond! Rent The Chicken provides all of the supplies needed for the June - November rental: portable chicken coop, two egg laying hens, 100 pounds of food, food & water dishes as well as instructions on how to keep your chickens happy. Within two days of the arrival, the hens will lay eggs ready to use and continue to lay 8-14 eggs per week. Renters often fall in love with Rent The Chicken and adopt the hens with all of their supplies at the end of the rental period.
