

SUMMER 2017 at the JUDAH PROJECT

Lots of exciting options! Group Classes!

Start the week of June 12th and ends the week of July 24th

OPTIONS:

- | | |
|-------------------------------|---|
| Chimes | -- Tuesdays 4-5:30PM |
| Music Production | -- Thursdays 2:30-3:30PM |
| Beginning Piano | -- Thursdays 3:45-4:45PM |
| ADULT Beginning Piano | -- Thursdays 5-6PM |
| *Beginning Jazz Improv | -- Tuesdays 6:30-7:30PM |
| | *4 weeks only (June 20, 27, July 5, July 11) |

Chimes are a great way to learn to read music, develop teamwork and ensemble skills, and are just plain fun! Lots of skills are developed by playing as a group, how chords work, motor skills, physical movement.
Teacher: Lynne Lightfoot

Music Production: Learn music software, how to create your own tracks, program drums, create your own music. Ages 9-18 years old.
Teacher: Sean Baker

Have you always wanted to give piano lessons a try? Here's a 7-week intro to piano class to get your fingers moving. Classes offered for youth and adults.
Beginning Piano for ages 10-18 and Adult Beginning Piano Class.
Teacher: Sean Baker

Beginning Jazz Improvisation: students will learn how to create improvised music while playing with their peers. We will do various creativity building exercises and play musical games together so that students can get more comfortable and confident with playing music without reading notes from a page. All instruments welcome. (4 WEEKS ONLY $40) Teacher: Lynn Speakman

Some of our Judah Project teachers will also be teaching private lessons during this 7-week Summer term. For more information, contact Stacy Sutton.
