

SAVE THE DATE!

THE SYMPOSIUM ON

REDUCING Youth Violence

Presented by

Pittsburgh Psychoanalytic Center in conjunction with
Manchester Bidwell Corporation

APRIL 30 - MAY 1, 2010

Manchester Bidwell Corporation
1815 Metropolitan Street
Pittsburgh, PA 15233

An educational outreach event that explores the causes of violence and effective models of youth violence reduction. The symposium will:

- Create an opportunity for informational exchange concerning psychoanalytically-informed interventions that reduce youth violence
- Present established and new theories of reducing youth violence
- Encourage the development of programs and policies that reduce youth violence

Learn from leading national experts:

- Steven Marans, MSW, PhD, Psychoanalyst and Director, National Center for Children Exposed to Violence, Yale Child Study Center
- Mark Smoller, PhD, Psychoanalyst and current and founding Director of the Analytic Service to Adolescents Project in Chicago
- Deborah Smolover, JD, Attorney and Public Policy Director of the Yale Child Study Center, National Center for Children Exposed to Violence
- William E. Strickland, Jr., President/CEO of Manchester Bidwell Corporation
- Herbert Thomas, MD, Psychoanalyst and author of The Shame Response to Rejection; worked in penitentiary and jail settings to reduce violence in Pittsburgh
- Stuart Twamlow, MD, Psychoanalyst in the Menninger Department of Psychiatry and Director of the Peaceful School and Communities Research Program, Baylor College of Medicine

Symposium highlights include:

- Presentations with Q&A
- Interactive Workshops
- Panel Discussions
- Jazz Reception

Visit www.pghpsa.org for registration information and program details.
Questions? Call Pittsburgh Psychoanalytic Center at 412-661-4224 or email administration@pghpsa.com