

National Symposium on Handgun Violence

Join us to explore the growing crisis of handgun violence in America.

April 9, 2008, 3-5 p.m.

Duquesne University, Power Center Ballroom
Free and open to the public.

To register, call 412.396.5131 or visit www.duq.edu/handgun

Featured speaker:

- Jim Brady, paralyzed during an assassination attempt on President Reagan

Expert presenters include:

- Kathleen Kennedy Townsend, daughter of the late Senator Robert F. Kennedy, appearing via video
- Marisa Randazzo, former Secret Service agent, who specializes in terrorism and threat assessment
- Tom Mauser,
father of Columbine High School shooting victim
- Dr. Diane Strollo, UPMC, mother of survivor of Virginia Tech shooting
- David Hemenway, author and Harvard University professor
- Jill Smallwood-Rustin, detective, Pittsburgh Police Department

Also invited:

- Government leaders from Pennsylvania and a representative from the Pennsylvania National Rifle Association

Moderator:

- Cynthia A. Baldwin, partner, Duane Morris LLP; retired justice, Pennsylvania
Supreme Court